The Senior Class
Calvert High School
Tiffin, Ohio*

Dedication

Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers, teachers who are thoroughly prepared and well-grounded in the matter they have to teach; who possess the intellectual and moral qualifications required by their important office; who cherish a pure and holy love for the youths confided to them, because they love Jesus Christ and His Church.

Pius XI

Calvert has benefited one hundred fold from such teachers! The teachers of Calvert have constantly striven to produce good Catholics and citizens of America. Daily, through the years, our teachers have taught and will continue to teach the basis of life—religion. All subjects in the curriculum are presented in the light of Christianity. Students are continually taught the difference between right and wrong, so that their principles of life will be strengthened.

Our faculty members have always striven to give, in addition to their classroom instructions, the guidance that all students seek; and they have saved many a student from a mistake by sheer good example.

With these sentiments, we, the Class of 1958, are dedicating this Calvertana to the teachers, past and present, who have contributed, each in his own way, to the formation of good members of Christ's Mystical Body and good citizens of America.

Bishop of Toledo

THE MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, S.T.D.

With full right the Church promotes letters, science, art, in so far as necessary or helpful to Christian education, in addition to her work for salvation of souls; founding and maintaining schools and institutions adapted to every branch of learning and degree of culture.

Pius XI

Bishop Rehring helps to save the souls of his flock by promoting education. He does this through his letters to the people and through the schools which he founds and maintains. Through the efforts of the Bishop the Toledo diocese has many elementary schools and high schools.

It was through the Bishop that the Calvert High School building was erected and through him that it is maintained. Because of him Calvert has its wonderful principal and a well-educated faculty large enough to teach Calvert's growing student body.

Although Bishop Rehring has many tasks, he takes time out each Spring to honor Calvert's graduation with his presence.

The students of Calvert are grateful for the many blessings that come to them from our Most Reverend Bishop George J. Rehring.

FACULTY

"Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers."

Principal

REV. EDWARD C. DUNN, M.A., S.T.L.

"But Christ's and his disciples' word he sought to teach, and first he followed what he taught"

These words express the feeling that the students of Calvert have for Father Dunn. Because of Father's way of teaching religion—by example—he has contributed immensely toward making us stronger members of the Catholic faith.

Rev. Benedict E. Ringholz, B.A.

Assistant Principal

A friend and consultant is Father Ringholz. When advice is needed or when a student just wants someone to talk to, Father will be there.

Calvert is indeed fortunate to have Father Ringholz because of his unselfishness, his pleasantness, and his sincerity. He helps us plan our proms and cheers for our teams.

The seniors and the juniors will always remember Father's religion classes where he helped us to understand better our Catholic religion. The sophomores and freshmen are looking forward to the years that are coming.

Board of Fiscal Control

The students of Calvert with deepest sincerity, wish to thank Monsignor R. I. Kinnane and Monsignor Richard J. Gabel for having given us so many means to become good members of the Mystical Body of Christ.

Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel have dedicated their lives to giving us every possible opportunity to reach the goal in life which God has set for us. They provided us with Catholic grade schools where we began to develop spiritually, intellectually, and socially. They aided us further by financing part of our tuition at Calvert. They help us also by their prayers.

We know that what they have done for us will some day be fully rewarded by God. Right now we can do nothing more than express our appreciation and deep thanks to both Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel.

The Student Council

The Student Council discusses certain problems of the student, and with the help of Father Dunn, tries to solve them. It also serves as a co-ordinator for various school activities such as the mission party, magazine drive, and color day.

CLASSES

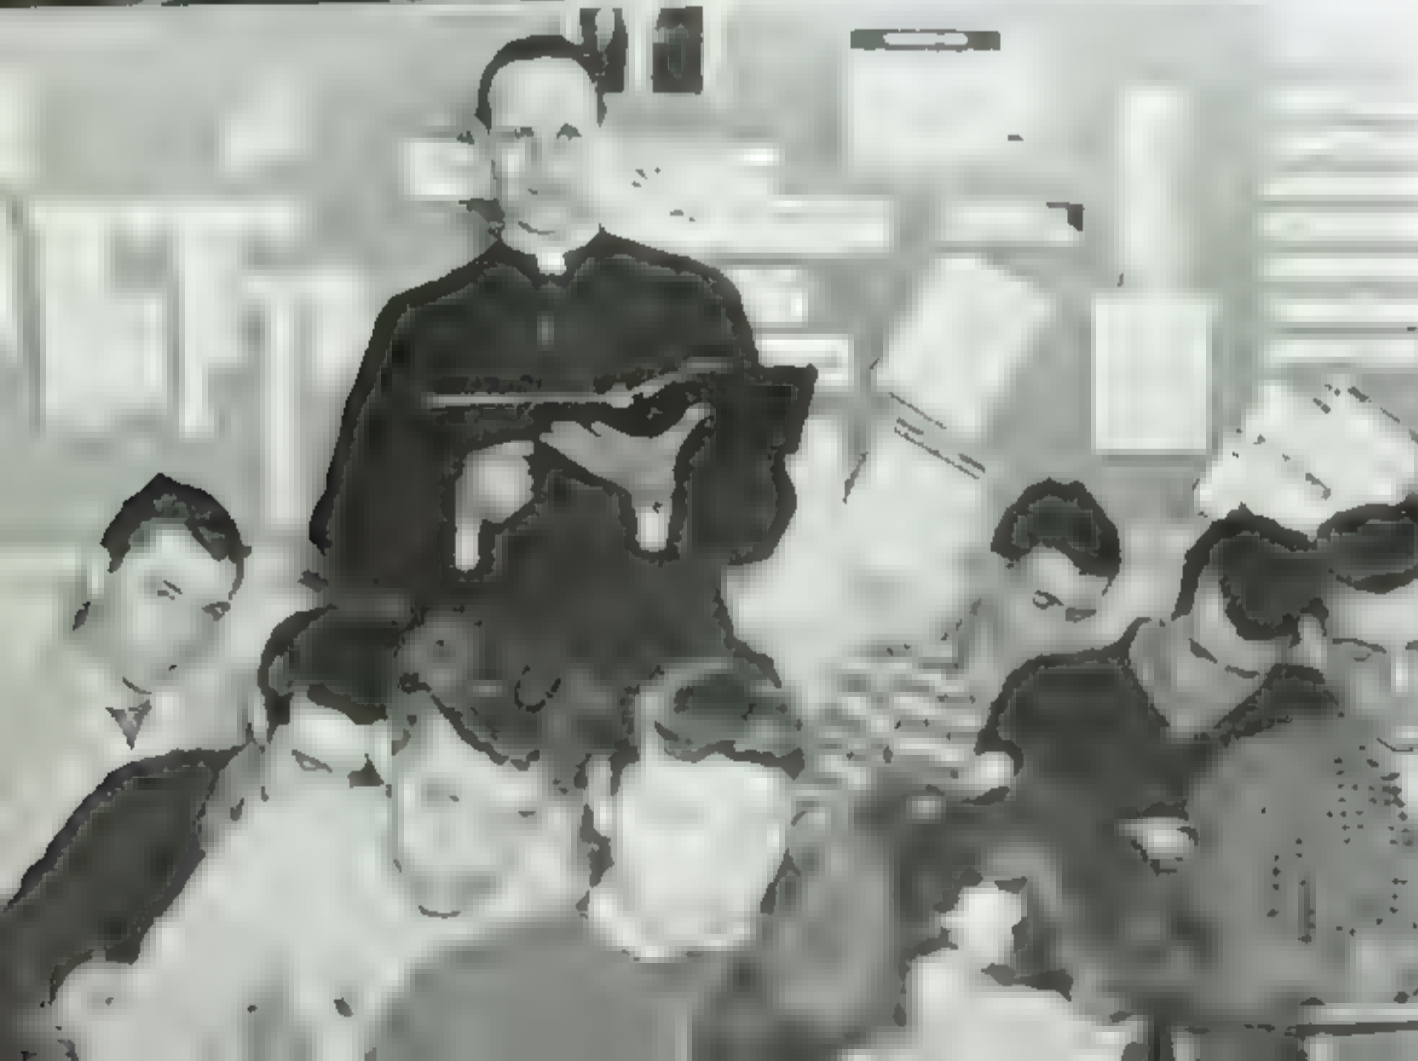

"It is necessary that the teaching and the whole organization of the school. teachers. . .textbooks. . .be regulated by the Christian spirit. . .so that religion may be in very truth the foundation and crown of the youth's entire training."

The Mass, the main topic in the freshman religion course, is explained to a class of freshman girls by Father Reichert.

Religion

Calvert's annual retreat helps the students increase in grace through daily religious conferences, spiritual readings, confession, recitation of the litany of the Blessed Virgin, and examination of conscience. All of these form part of the students' religious growth and give them additional instructions in religion.

This year's retreat opened with Mass on Wednesday, January 22, and lasted till January 24. Each day after Mass the students went to conferences where they were given talks by the retreat masters on the teachings of the Church.

Father Schill's daily talks to the juniors and seniors were on the importance of sanctifying grace in our lives, obedience, purity, and other virtues.

Father Traser was the retreat master for the freshmen and sophomores. The theme of his talks was "Our Duty to God, our Parents, and Ourselves."

English

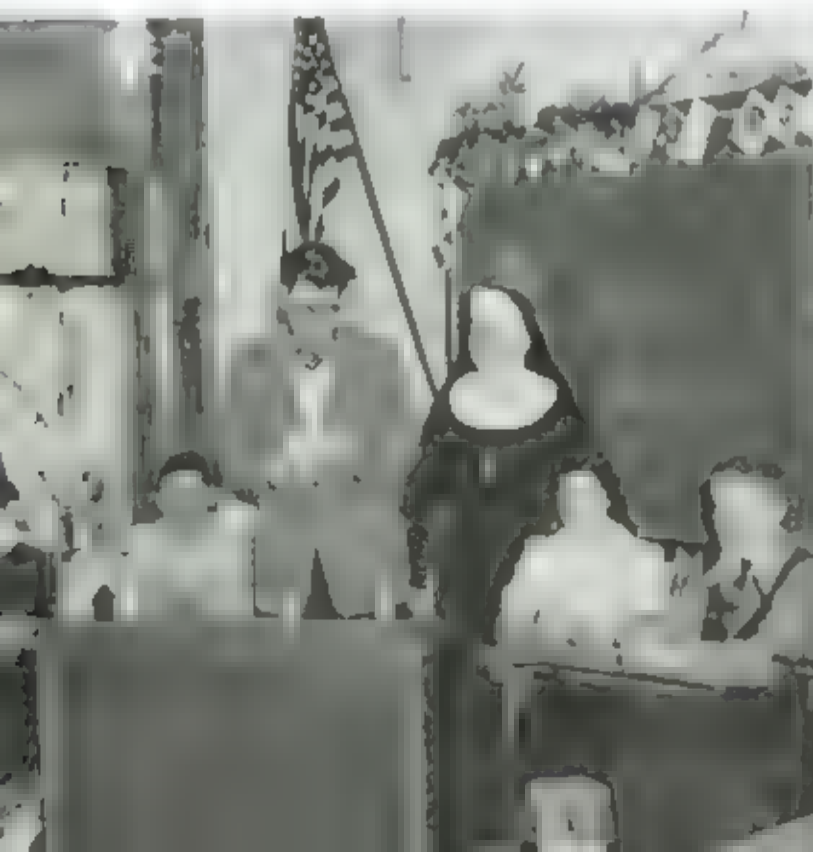

In a sophomore English class Joan Dornan is pointing out and explaining the use of the infinitive. Looking on are George Schafer, Lee Weimerskirch, Sister M. Callista, Ann Bish, and Alice Grieve.

Sister Marie Celine is happily looking over the final copies of some junior essays. The junior English students gathered around her are Elmo Smith, Phyllis Borer, Patricia McClellan, Patricia Leahy, Barbara Kasza, and Ancilla Fisher.

During a freshman English class Richard Hayes acts as chairman of a panel discussing which is more important, studies or activities. Listening intently are Nancy Boner, James Kleinhenz, Sister M. Agnes, Jeannette Yost, and Thomas Snyder.

Following Sister Merici's suggestions in speech class, Ronald Shook demonstrates the correct procedure of speaking with a microphone, while Louis Walliser records the speech on the tape recorder. Waiting for their turns are Ancilla Fisher, Mary Lou Huss and Karen Stover.

First Year Latin

A group of freshman in a first year Latin class begin their preparation for the study of the classics.

Spanish

Clarann Haefling and Phyllis Borer indulge in a bit of Spanish conversation about Our Lady of Guadalupe as other members of the class prepare a lesson in their books.

Inter Nos

With Sister Emmanuel's help, third and fourth year Latin Students translate the latest edition of the Inter Nos, a Latin magazine.

The officers of the Latin Club are shown working on their project, the publication of the Inter Nos. They are: Phyllis Rumschlag, secretary; Anthony Schetter, treasurer; James Unser, President; and Betty Renninger, vice-president.

Art

Mechanical Drawing

Mr. Diringer is explaining a lesson in mechanical drawing to a group of juniors, George Fretz, Michael Hart, Frank Mangiola and Michael Huffman.

Shop

Working on their boat project are Gerald Phillips, Herman Zoeller, Kenneth Hess, Russell Magers, James Unser, James McNulty, Carol Burns, Joseph Tiell, John Weinandy, David Seislove, James Ring, William Theis, Paul Hemminger and Paul Boes. Mr. Zalar, the instructor, watches.

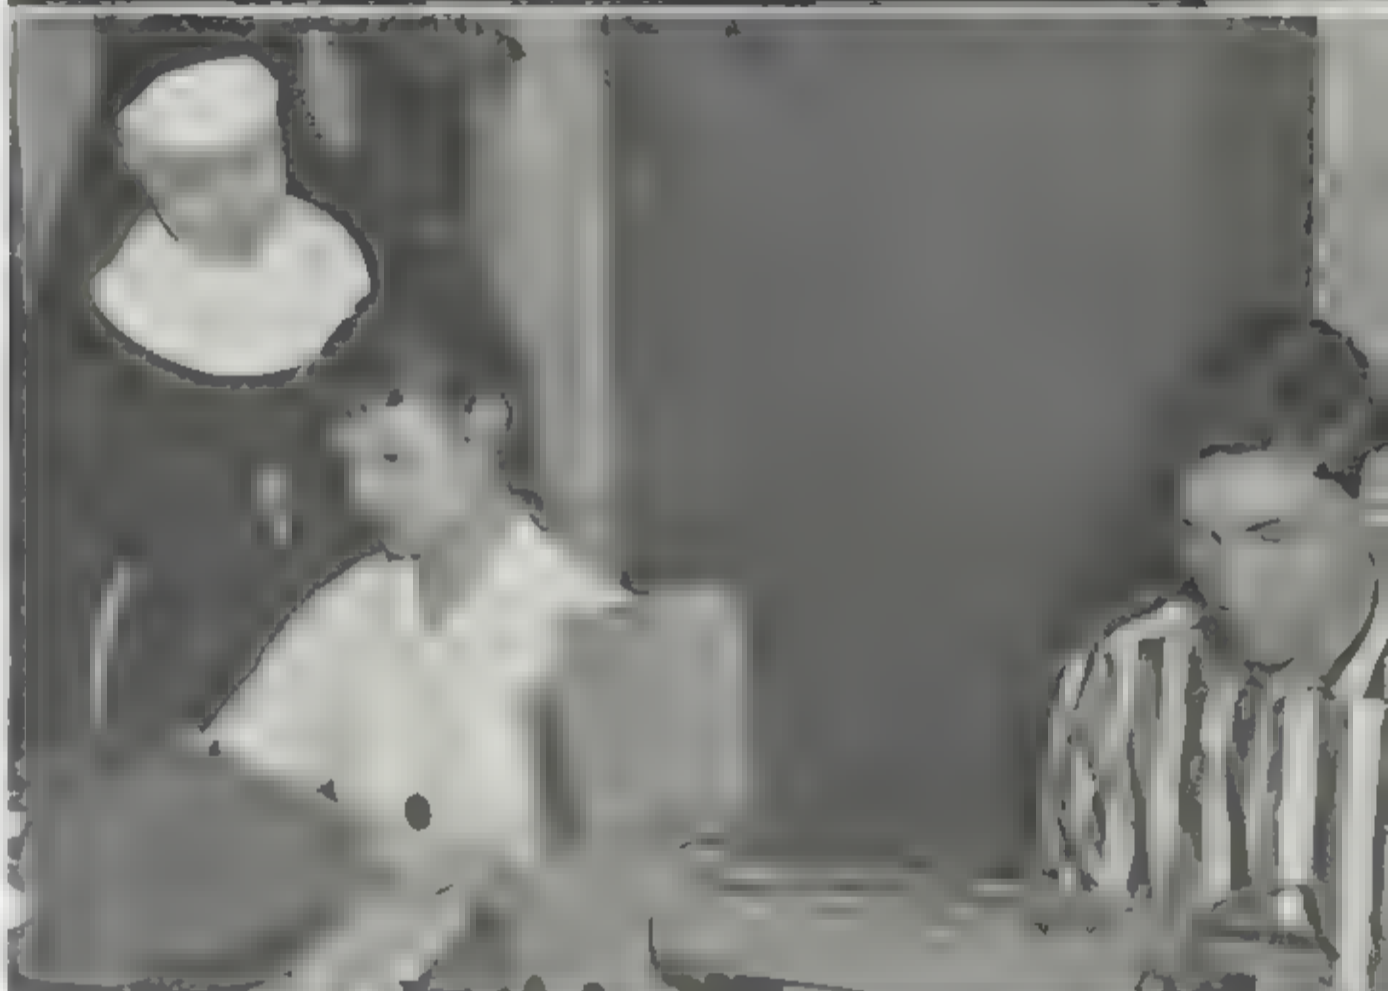

Bookkeeping

Robert Bish, with the assistance of Irma Baugher and Janet Bish, is explaining the work sheet to his bookkeeping classmates.

Office Practice

In this new subject the students learn various business skills. Kenneth Hess is transcribing on the Comptometer Dictation Transcription while Sister Mark is explaining the full key adding machine to Donna Frederick.

Typing

"Eyes on copy," Sister Barbara tells Ancilla Fisher as Irene Frankhart, Rose Kirian, Margaret Kastner, Karen Stover and Mary Godbout busily work at their task of acquiring speed and accuracy at the typewriter.

Biology

Under the supervision of Sister Maurice, Stephanie Kramer, Marilyn Elchert, Joan Dornan, Judith Mathias, and Carol Ring are using some of the new microscopes and other equipment to examine a few biological specimens they have studied this year.

Chemistry

Health

Mr. Kukoy is explaining to an eager group of sophomores the things a person must do in order to enjoy a healthful life. Health is a new subject in the curriculum this year.

Physics

David Steinmetz and Elmo Smith are reconditioning a radio receiver while David Krupp is examining a Geiger counter under the guidance of Sister Cordula. Elizabeth Lucas and Jane Mattes are determining the various uses of an oscilloscope.

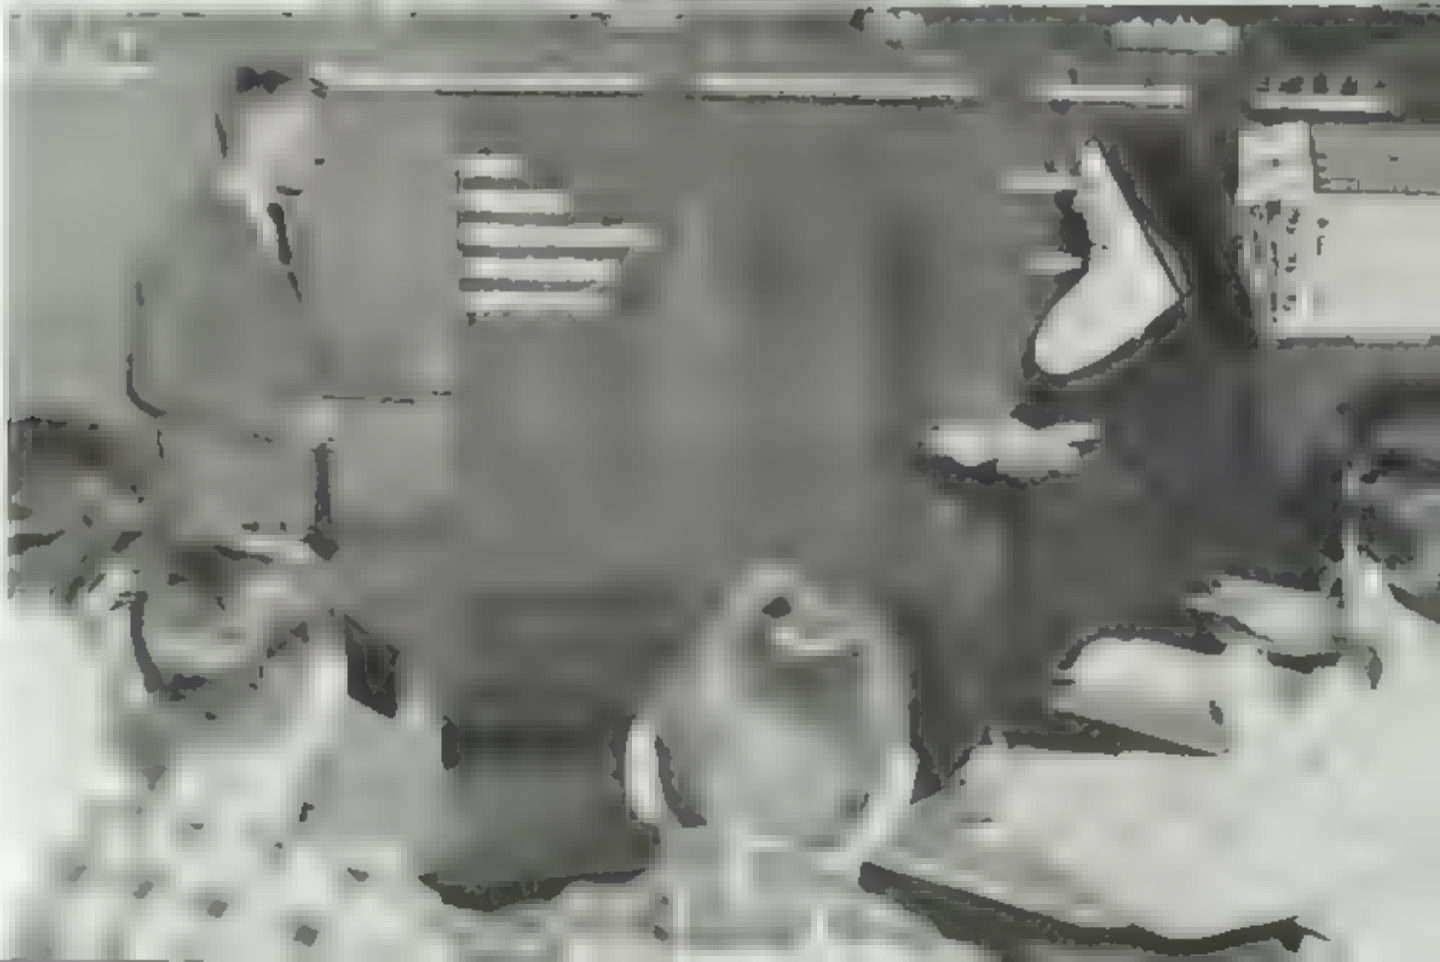

Geometry

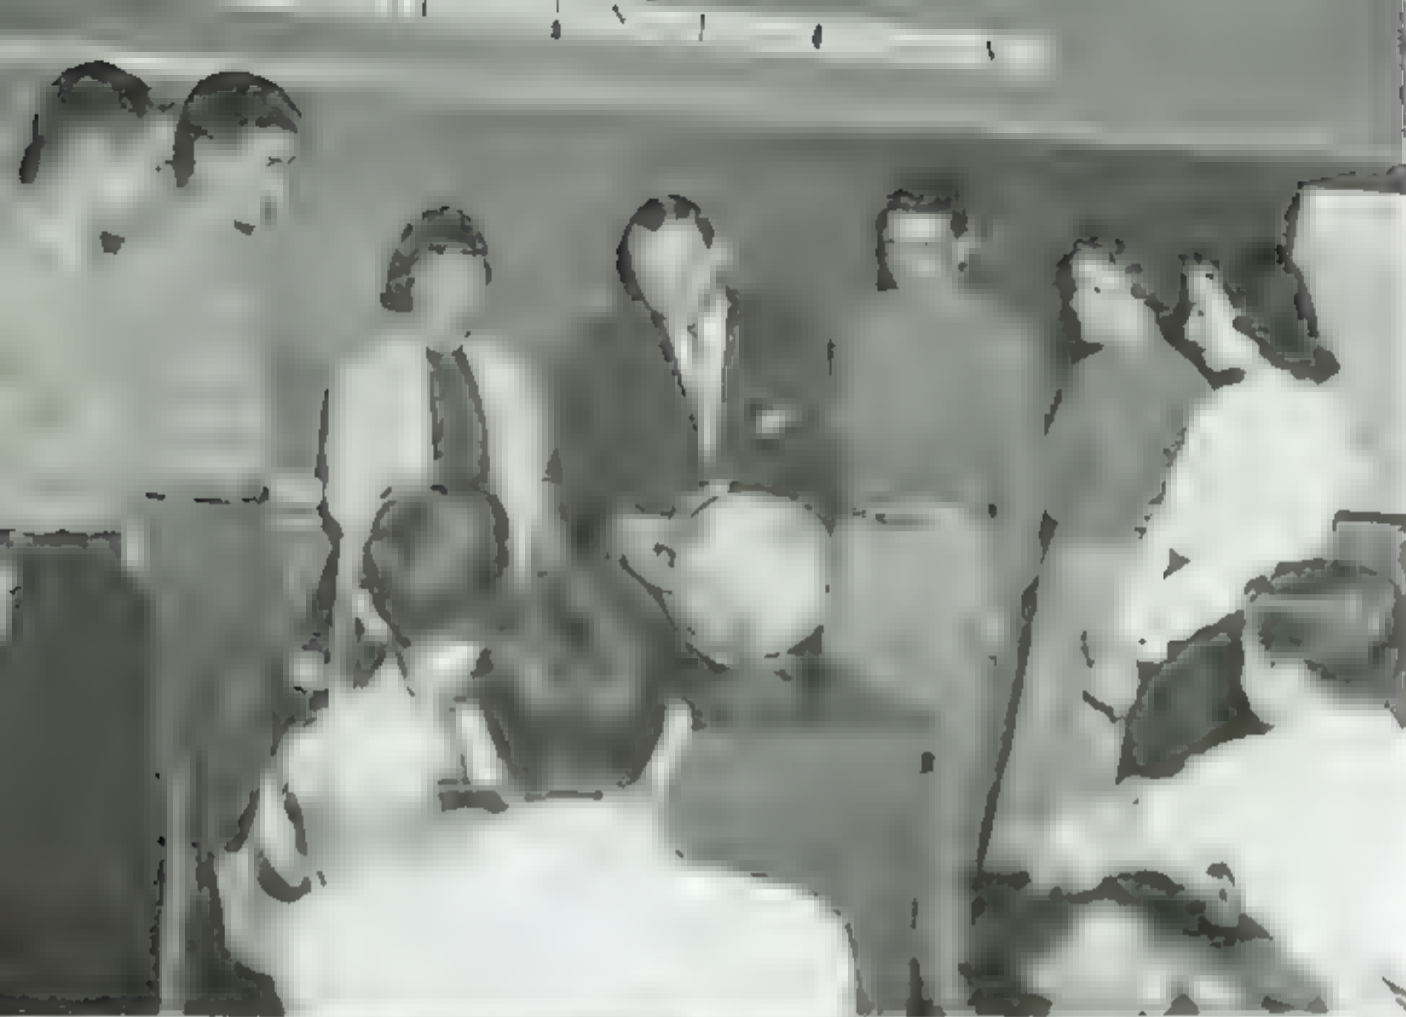

In Mr. Dyringer's geometry, Ronald Mathias explains the theorem for finding the median of a trapezoid to David Leahy, Marjorie Whittaker, Ronald Dandurand, James Terry, Dianne Panning, and Donna Myer.

Algebra

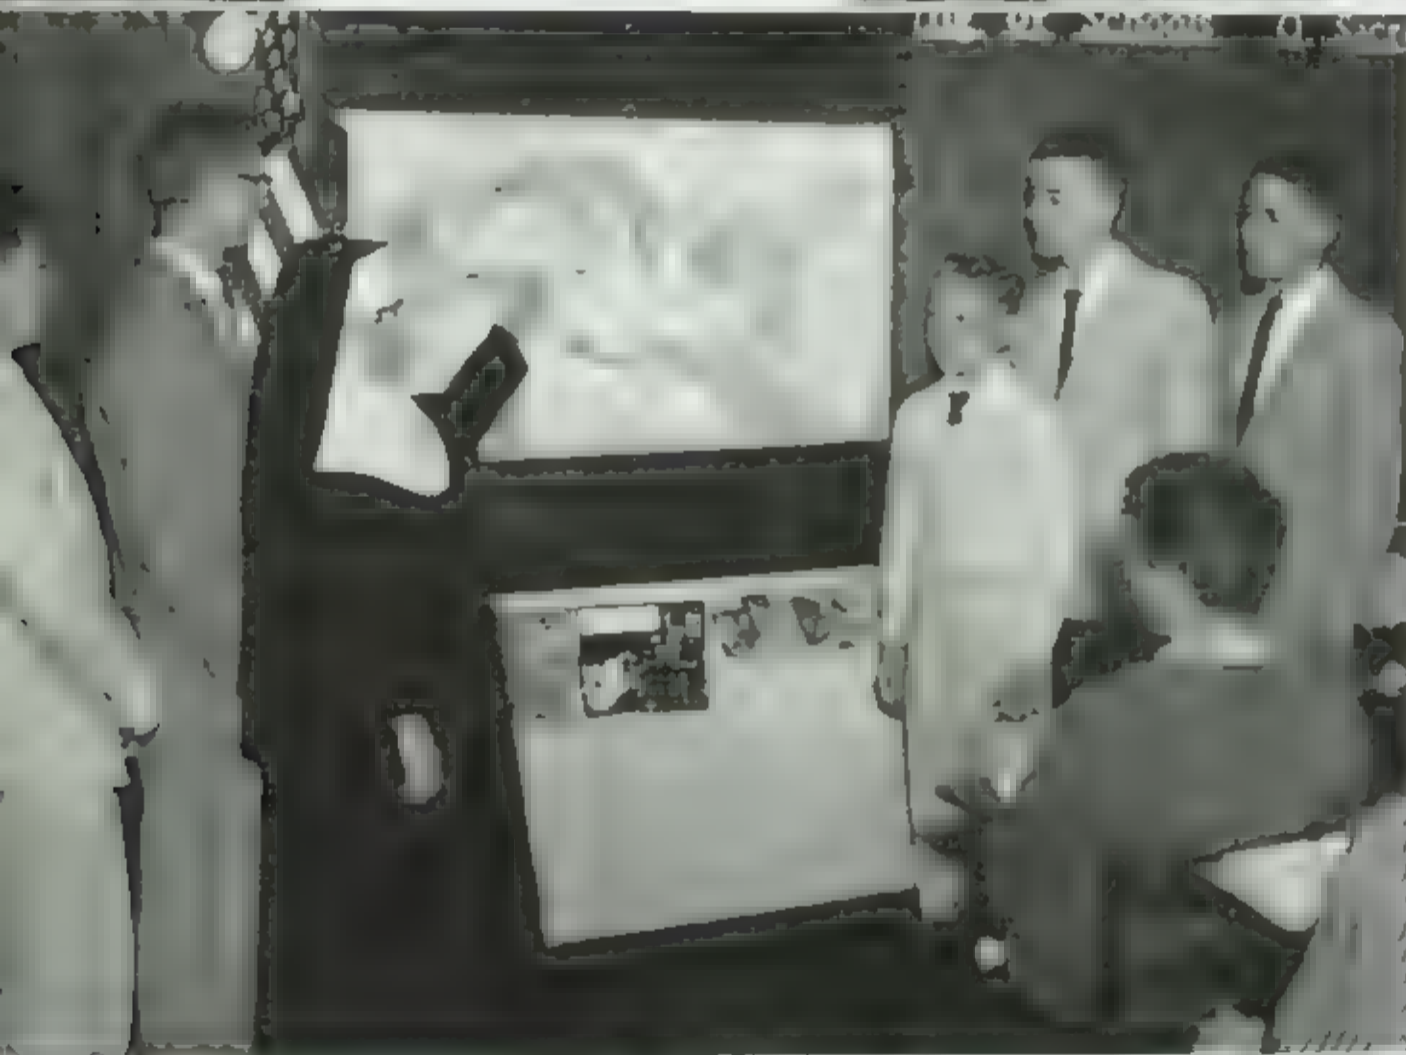

In Mother Vincent De Paul's algebra class Michael Dysard explains a graph to Nancy Harlett, Eugene Welter, Richard Yoakum, Benedict Schetter, Sharon Kromer and Paula Romig.

American History

Mr. Paul Milette and his American history students. William Crist, Paul Winterhalter, Judy Brickner, Daniel Ring, Mary Ann Koller, and Eileen Dow study the world in relation to our own country's history.

Ancient History

James Kleinhenz, Kenneth Zender, Daniel Fleck, Samuel Sullivan, Eugene Sanders and Charles Bryner listen attentively as Sister Aloysia traces the route that Hannibal took from Carthage through Spain down through the Alps to invade Italy.

Civics

Mr. Zalar, in one of his senior civics classes, looks on as Betty Renninger reads the fundamental duties of the armed forces in overseas and foreign affairs.

Home Economics

Sister Alice Marie, Shirley Hahler, Constance Longo, Sheila Hade, Sue Strausbaugh, Eloise Piper and Judy Kuhn are selecting color scheme for the wall and furnishings of a room.

While Carmella Mangiola is sewing, Janet Hohman is fitting the hem of Rose Ann Ardner's apron. Jean Hes and Ruth Sheeley are tracing their patterns.

Rose Ann Ardner, Mary Carp, Maryanne Wolf, Pamela Shelt and Ann Sheeley of the first year home economics class are busily mixing their batter while Patricia Grieselding looks in on her results.

Physical Education

Miss Stauffer demonstrates to some of her students the correct way to shoot a basket.

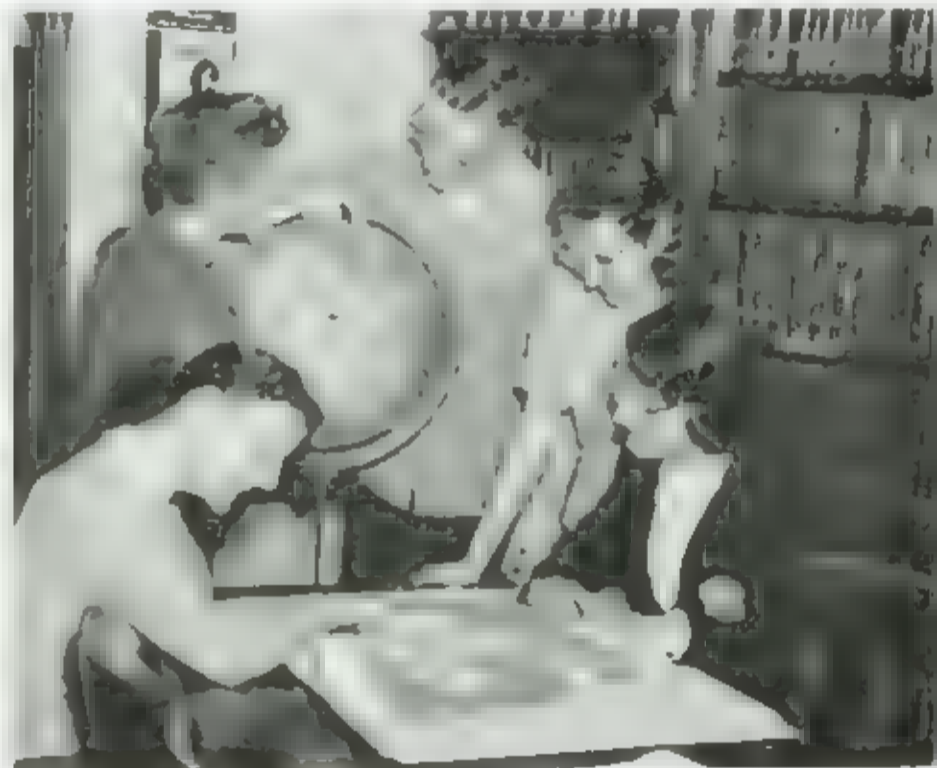

Library

By tracing the current explorations of Antarctica, Angela Fnemoth, Carol Kerkhoff, Judith Mathias, Robert Flechtner, and Thomas Funkhouser show their interest in the International Geophysical Year.

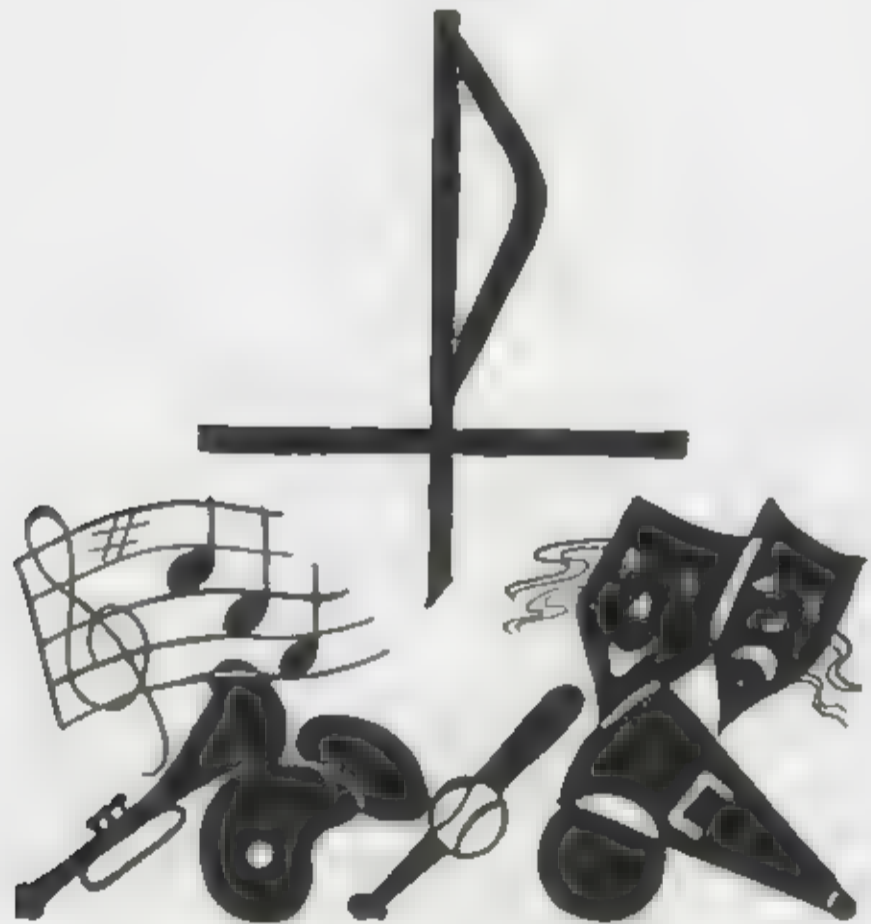

Study Hall

The fact that eating is not the only use for a cafeteria is demonstrated by Virginia Kuhn, Janet Rider, Mary Lou Hamilton, Susan Crist, Judy Miller, Jean Hess, and Patricia Koerper, members of Sister Barbara's cafeteria study hall.

ACTIVITIES

"Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic and social, in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ."

Calvert News

Co-editors William Crist and Martha Carpenter, seated at the end of the table, prepare the final product with the help of the associate editors, Angela Grillo, Anne Wade, Nancy Mathias, Elizabeth Oddo, and Rebecca Jentgen. Louis Walliser is staff artist.

Lining up the news coverage are news writers: Michael Englehart, Thomas Welter, staff photographer Gerard Welter, Pasquale Patuto, Dolores Galetto, Louis Wise, Linda Smith, Ann Myers, Marcia Chester, and Elinor Franzen.

Alumni Staff

Mailing Staff

Typists

Judy Shelt and Susan Leahy are typing stories while other typists, Janet Bish, Marilyn Hohman, Carol Mathias, Dorothy Schetter, Regina Ferstler, Marjorie Lucius, Ruth Rumschlag, Mary Bogner, and Margaret Mueller, look for mistakes in the copy. Staff members not present are Carole Gilgannon, Ann Miller, Rosemary Brickner, and Sandra Kleinhenz.

The 1958 Calvertana

The co-editors of the 1958 yearbook, Dolores Gaietto and James McNulty, have worked many long hours toward making this the very best yearbook ever to come out of Calvert. Their unceasing hard work and generous giving up of their free time is greatly appreciated by the whole student body.

The rest of the seniors on the yearbook staff have contributed their share of hard work, time, thought, and worries to the success of the Calvertana. But many hours of enjoyment were also derived from the making of the book.

Years from now, as they look through the pages of their book, the graduates will be able to relive their joys, sorrows, and recall their old friendships.

And so, out of all this work comes the finished product, a yearbook full of memories of the happiest years of a person's life.

The members of the busy business staff are Nancy Mathias, Pasquale Patuto, Robert Weimerskirch, and Phyllis Rumschlag.

Senior Play, "Glamour Boy"

"He just sits and day-dreams." Miss Prescott, Mary Ley, explains to the principal, Mr. Garfield, played by Pasquale Patuto, about Chauncey's conduct in class. Robert Bish is Chauncey.

Miss Prescott and radio announcer Ronald Kirian look astonished as Chauncey, Michael Englehart, answers questions about English that stumped even Miss Prescott.

"Now let's see, where's the human interest angle?" says photographer Paul Boes to Michael Englehart, the dream Chauncey.

Setting the pace for the marching band are Patricia Leahy, Judy Baumgardner, Rebecca Spencer, Mary Ann Koller, Lawrence Barrick, Eileen Dow, Angela Friemuth, Helen Hess and Judy Traunero. Sister Jeanne Marie, band director, is pictured with the group.

Martha Carpenter and Charles Reinhart lend the soft mellow tones of their saxophones while Judy Warnement, Sharon Mitten, Francis McClellan and Janet Rider offer the cheerful notes of their flutes.

Melodious strains come from the trumpet section composed of Donna Meyer, Patricia McClellan, Donald Stein, Elizabeth Wilhelm, Adeline Aiello, Janice Graham, Dorothy Koby, Lawrence Felter, Marlene Sherwood, Judy Daniel, Joyce Rumschlag, Jane Ferrall, James Creeger, Jane Warnement, and Ann Weinberger.

Musicians

Carol Maloy, Irene Welty, Mary Ann Bell, Carolyn Sorg, Regina Polski, Daniel Stein, William Harber, Elizabeth Murray, Marjorie Whittaker, Barbara Sass, Susan Huffman, Mary Francis Haefling, Sharon Kinn, and Virginia Staib produce the high notes from the reed section. Band members not in the pictures are Susan Clark, Martha Reineck, John Peck and Richard Jentgen

"Victory, Victory is our cry"

The batons used by Calvert's majorettes really went a-whirling this season under the watchful eye of Margaret Mueller, head majorette. Margaret's able assistants, showing just as much proficiency, are Sharon Zalar, Barbara Kasza, Judy Eckert.

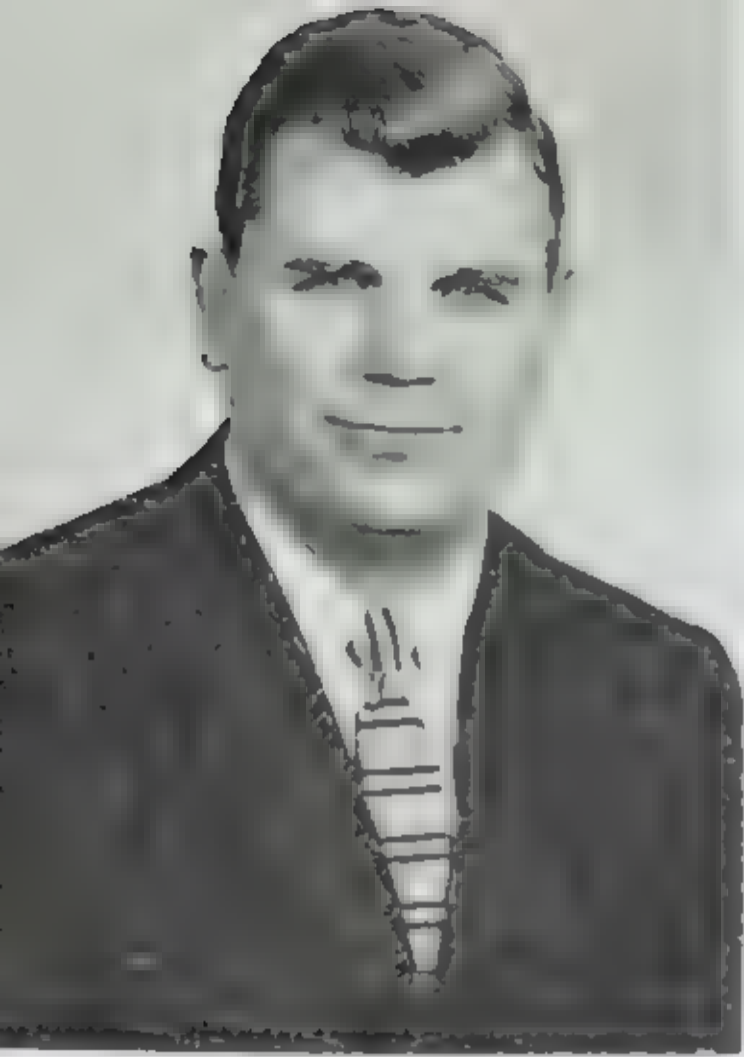

Here are our peppy cheerleaders who performed exceptionally well this past season leading the student body and displaying some of the best school spirit Calvert has ever seen. They are, from left to right: Patti Kimmet, Mary Catherine Ledwedge, Phyllis Rumschlag, Mary Lou Zoll, Rebecca Jentgen, and Ann Myers.

Three girls who contributed a great deal to our cheering section with their snappy performances are the reserve cheerleaders: Sue Strausbaugh, Joan Dornan, Mary Jo Doepker.

Coaching Staff

MR. KARL ZALAR

For the last nine years Calvert has had as its head football coach Mr. Karl Zalar, better known as "Zip". During these years Mr. Zalar has done a fine job in turning out good athletes. When he starts with his boys in their freshman year he starts with fundamentals, and through the years he keeps improving them until they are finished products in their senior year. To Zip this finished product need not be a dazzling college prospect, but a young man who has learned to take orders and work with others in a sportsmanlike manner.

Whether Zip is rushing the boys out of the fieldhouse for practice, putting them through a rough practice, or working with them in the classroom or shop, he does it with concern and interest.

Those who have known Zip have learned to appreciate him for what he is. "a true builder of men."

Mr. Joseph Kukoy has done a fine job in his first year as head basketball coach, finishing the season with a praiseworthy 11-4 record.

Coach Kukoy is a tireless worker for the betterment of his boys. In his coaching he stresses keen ball-handling and often takes to the floor to demonstrate his theories of play. To "Joe", an asset to a team is the player's obedience to the training rules which will result in his top physical condition.

Mr. Kukoy's interests are not limited only to the cage game. He still takes a great interest in the football team. Last season he helped Zip with the line and was always ready with a helping hand for the backfield. He will always be remembered by the grid players as the sprint leader, and for his famous words of "just one more!"

MR. JOSEPH KUKOY

Assisting head coach Zalar in football and coach Kukoy in basketball was Mr. Paul Milette, who joined the coaching staff this year.

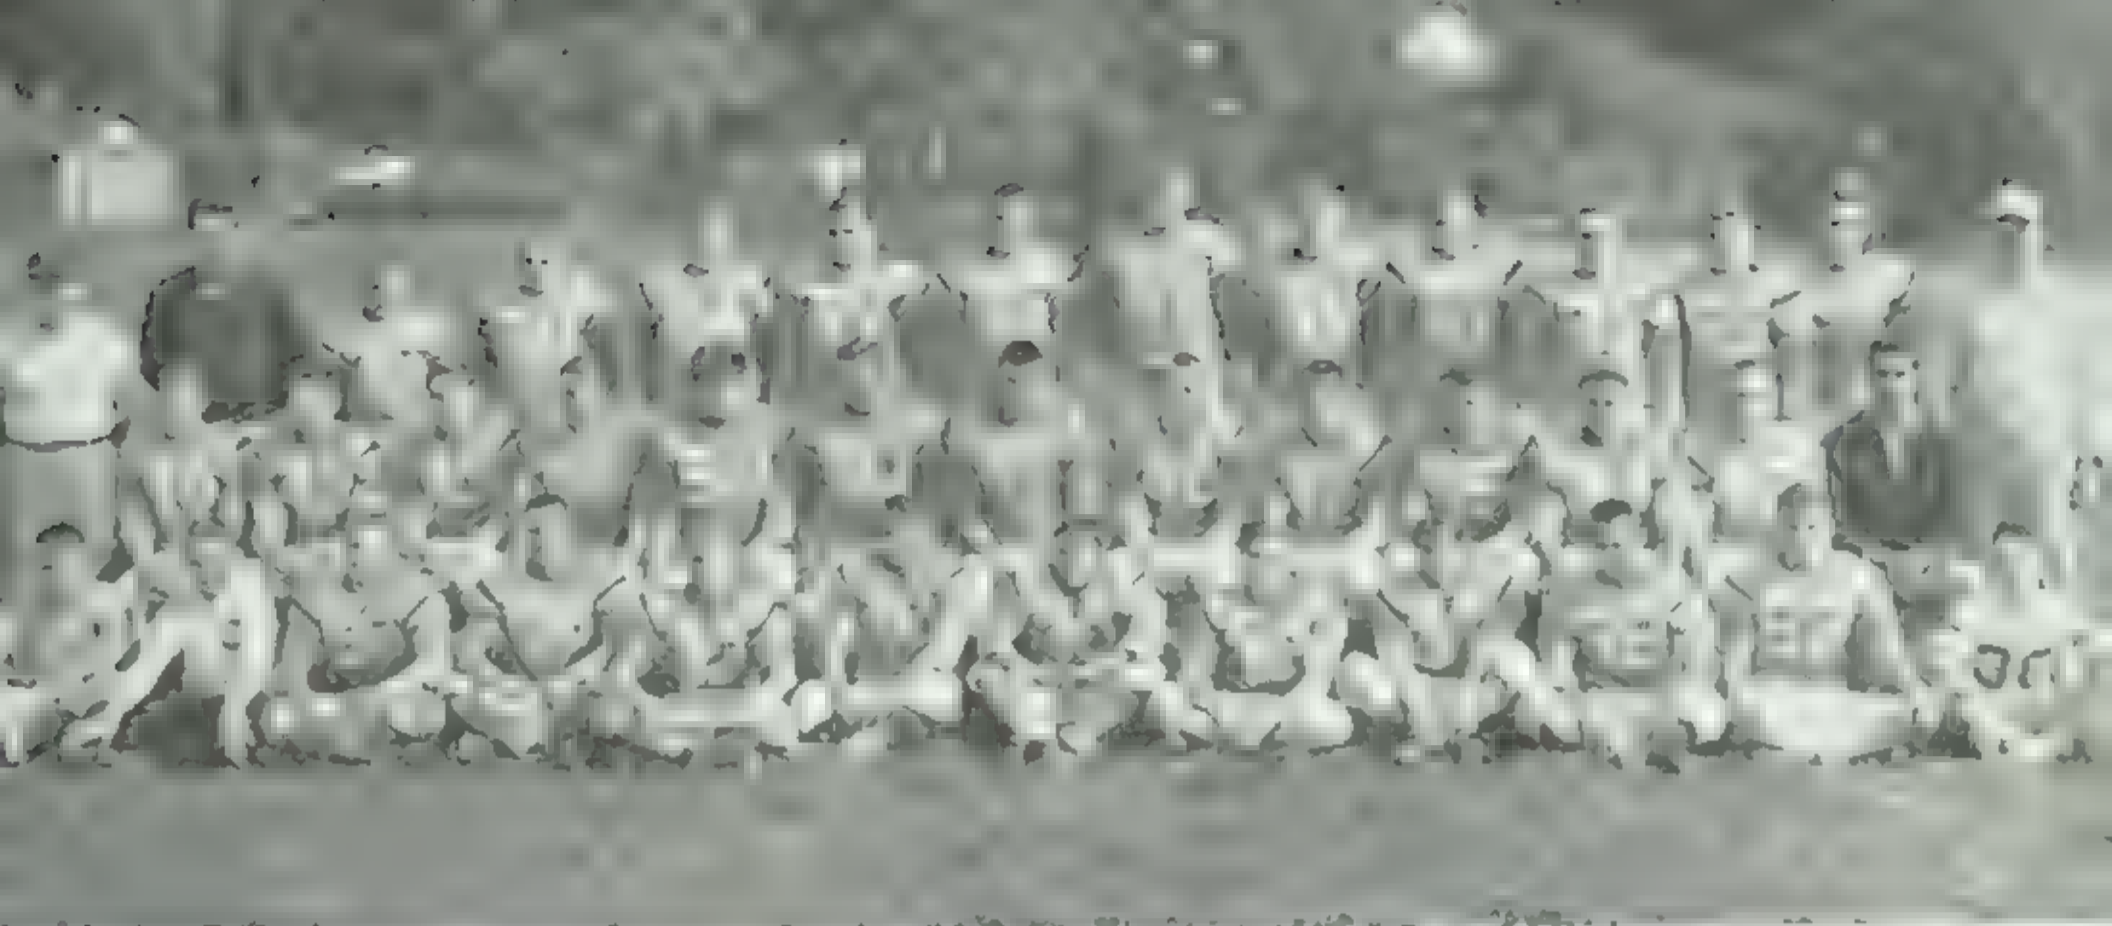

In football Mr. Milette coached the backfield and turned out a fine running team. In basketball he taught the reserves and did a tremendous job by building one of the best teams in years.

In only one year, through his willingness to help and his understanding of boys, Mr. Milette has won the respect and confidence of all those whom he has taught.

To you, coach, we say thanks for doing your part toward training us to be better men in the future.

MR. PAUL MILETTI

Michael McCrory, Robert Snyder, James Gillig, Vern Fisher, Frank Mangiola, Michael Huffman, Coach Granata

GRID SEASON OF '57

From the viewpoint of local grid standings, the 1957 record of our Calvert Senecas may not be as impressive as those of former years; however, we believe that the development of team loyalty, cooperation, and the spirit of never-say-die was shown by our 1957 football team. Records are made and records are broken, but of this year's team it can be said that they were victorious in achieving team spirit and the will to give their best.

As the season came to an end, the record was three wins and five losses. Wins were over Fremont St. Joseph, Holland, and Norwalk St. Paul. Heartbreakers were lost to Sandusky St. Mary's, Delphos St. John, Crestline, Bucyrus, and Toledo St. Francis.

Although there were eight seniors on the team, only five were on the first team. McCrory, Seislove, and Farley were three year lettermen. Ring and McNulty were two year lettermen. The seniors receiving letters this year were Schoen, O'Connell, and Theis.

James "Ding-Dong" Ring was a rough and ready man playing hard in the front lines for the Senecas.

James "Mac" McNulty, the other tackle, was one of the biggest men on the team and did a great job at his position.

Eugene "Killer" Schoen did a fine job of filling in on defense in the front lines for Calvert.

David "Pixie" Seislove was a tuff determined guard who always gave everything he had right up to the final gun.

Gilman "Hod" Farley, a six foot end, did a tremendous job of catching passes and stopping end runs.

Timothy "Dutch" O'Connell never gave up his desire to get in there and score for the Senecas.

William "Bill" Theis was always willing to get in on defense and fight hard.

Michael "Turk" McCrory was a hard-fighting and hard-hitting fullback for the Senecas.

Underclassmen receiving letters this year were: juniors; James Saad, Robert Altwies, Daniel McGowan, John Sauber, Michael Huffman, and Frank Mangiola; sophomores; David Masella, James Wright, Ronald Dandurand, Ronald Mathias, and James Gillig. With these eleven men, the next years' seasons look promising.

SENECA PAST PERFORMANCES

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Kukoy the Calvert Senecas came through the 1957-58 basketball season with a sterling 11-3 record.

Losing the first game of the season to Hopewell-Loudon, Calvert drew three consecutive victories before losing to Sandusky St. Mary's - Shelby 70-46, Marion St. Mary's 68-52, and Attica 78-59.

Pulling through the Fremont St. Joseph game 57-50, Calvert went on to top Shelby for the second time. Mansfield Madison gave the next defeat, which was followed by a win over Norwalk St. Paul.

The Bucyrus game gave Gil Farley 38 points to lead Calvert in its 7th victory 81-67. Calvert concluded the season by winning the last four games.

The total over-all points for Calvert were 967. 733 of these were scored by Gil Farley and Paul Winterhalter.

Entering the Marion tournament for the first time, Calvert, called the "dark horse", lost their first game to Galion 70-63.

Senior Cagers

Buzz Hohman proved to be a fast, aggressive guard who never let his lack of height be a hindrance to him. Buzz was an alert heads-up ball player on defense, and one who kept the opponents awake because of his ability to steal the ball. He was a threat also because of his shooting ability.

Buzz has been a member of the varsity since his junior year. During the '57-'58 season he was on the starting five and chalked up a total of 79 points.

Gil Farley, center, proved to be quite an asset to the squad. Gil could sink hook shots with either hand and could sink hooks shots from either corner of the court. Gil was a smooth, competent player under the basket. On defense Gil was always top man when it came to rebounding.

Gil has been a member of the varsity since his sophomore year. He has been one of the first five since his junior year. In his junior year, because of his fine play, Gil was elected most valuable player. During the '57-'58 season he proved his desire to win by running up a total of 412 points.

BASEBALL 1958

With the coming of spring, the baseballs and bats were taken out for use for the first time since 1952. Head football coach Karl Zalar added to his achievements at Calvert the job of directing the Senecas on the diamond.

March saw the beginning of practice sessions in the gym. As the weather became suitable, the team made Hedges-Boyer park the site of its diamond practices. Wearing new gray and blue uniforms, the team was ready for its first public appearance in April.

The first game, a victory over Fremont Ross, gave hopes for a promising season. The season's schedule included games with Fremont Ross, Fremont St. Joseph, Gibsonburg, Clyde, Attica, and Carey.

Third Row: Kenneth Hess, Richard Shaw, Louis Grieselding and Robert Altwies.

3. The winners of the magazine drive are shown looking at their prizes.

4. With November near, the final games become more interesting.

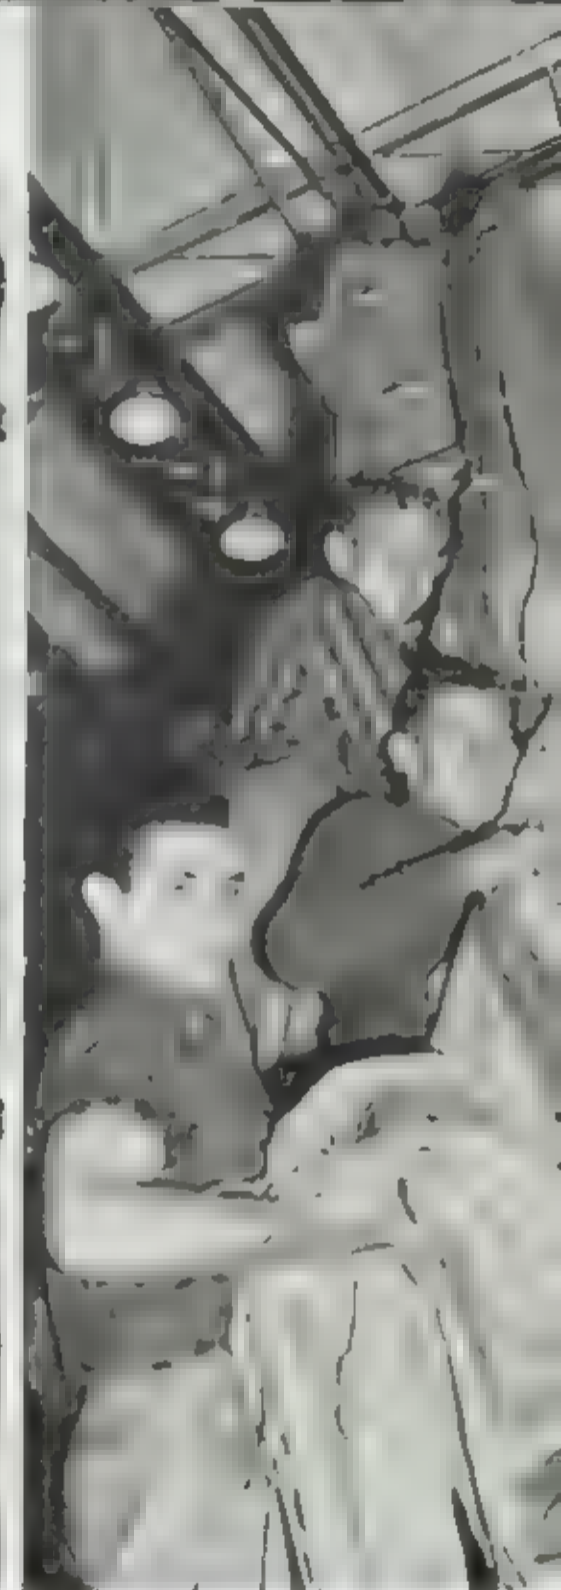

5. The Student Council makes plans for another of its many events.

6. Students enjoy themselves as they help the missions.

1. December: An impressive scene in the Christmas play presented by the speech class.
2. January: Herb Score presents athletic awards at the annual Booster banquet.
3. Father Dunn and Father Ringholz join in the activities of the Calvert festival.

4. The chapel provided a place for the students to pray in silence during retreat.
5. The noon hour always presents a traffic problem on the way to the cafeteria.
6. Junior and senior boys enjoy delicious food provided in the cafeteria.

1. February: The King and Queen of "Cupid's Carousel", the Senior Class party
2. March: Guest Conductor, Father Heringhaus, prepares the soloists for the annual operetta
3. April: Sister Jeanne Marie prepares for the spring concert.
4. The gym is the scene of much activity during the noon hour.
5. Three senior boys prepare the stage for the Senior Class play, "Glamor Boy."

Sitting at her desk with a familiar smile is Mrs. Scherger, who devotes her secretarial ability to Calvert. Her work covers a variety of tasks such as issuing absentee and tardy slips and keeping records. Besides her busy day at the office, Mrs. Scherger also attends many school affairs. A true Calverteer!

The cafeteria, left in the capable hands of two fine ladies, sends out the most tantalizing aromas. Mrs. Harriet McClellan (middle) is the head of the kitchen. Her able assistant, Mrs. Mary Steinmetz, is second from the left. At the left is Mrs. John Dunn, and on the right Mrs. John Leahy, some of the students' mothers who take their turns helping at noon.

Mr. Sharpe, our skilled and friendly janitor, is always working hard to keep our school clean and orderly

Alumni Highlights

The annual Alumni Day took place Sunday, June 2, 1957. As has been the custom in the past, the day started with a High Mass offered for all living and deceased members of the Alumni and their families. Alumni officers attended the Mass, after which a reunion was held for members of the Alumni and their families. Retiring president Thomas Fleck spoke briefly to the group and announced the new officers as follows: Dr. Richard Leahy, president, Mrs. Richard Wagner, vice-president, James Boehler, treasurer, and Mary Ellen Meier, secretary.

That evening members of the Class of 1932 were honored at a dinner in the school cafeteria honoring their 25th anniversary.

Traditional Dance

"School Days" was the theme used for the Alumni Dance, a traditional event which took place over the Labor Day weekend. Held on Saturday evening, August 31, 1957, at Meadowbrook Ballroom, this dance, the most successful one yet, was attended by approximately 500 alumni members and their guests.

Special guests of the evening were the Rev. Edward C. Dunn and the Rev. Benedict Ringholz.

Alumni Projects

In the past some financial assistance has been offered to the school, provided by the limited income from the annual dues and dance profits. This money was used to purchase books, fixtures, files, and other necessary equipment for the library.

This year, besides the financial assistance given to the library and Sister Charlotte, we were asked to help defray the expense of additional folding bleachers in the gym.

In order to build a fund for this and for other future purposes, we abolished dues and established a yearly alumni contribution. The bleacher project was the goal of the 1958 Alumni Fund.

Career Day

Highlighting the 1957-58 year was the Career Day held March 2, 1958, at Calvert. The program, consisted of 15 representatives of various businesses and professions who gave informative speeches to the students interested in the speakers' subjects.

Father Dunn and the Alumni worked together to make this program the success that it was.

The officers wish to thank Father Dunn for his generous assistance with our projects during the year.
